

The Ohio State School for the Blind Marching Band (OSSB MB) successfully completed its trip to Pasadena to march in the 2010 Tournament of Roses Parade thanks to the efforts of the Lions of Ohio thru the Ohio Lions Foundation (OLF), The Columbus Foundation and the Parent, Teacher, Student Foundation.

The Marching Band has been invited to participate in numerous parades around the country. There is an ongoing need for instrument repair and replacement. The students, being kids and blind, tend to run into things with their instruments or step on their instruments causing damage.

We will continue to make available the opportunity for Lions Clubs, individual Lions and friends of the MB to make additional contributions to benefit the MB thru the Ohio Lions Foundation restricted fund.

All donations are tax deductible through the Ohio Lions Foundation.
